

My Business "godseye" is the company that can provide you with futuristic intelligent security services keeping your business and home in real time always. Along with our state-of-the-art hardware we have what South Africa has been waiting for, for smart software AI package that can help control your home and business safety, security or controls from anywhere in the world with just a command.

1. "Everything can be seen better from above"

